

Loneliness

Loneliness risks were calculated from GP prescriptions for conditions related to loneliness: Alzheimer's disease; depression; hypertension; insomnia; addiction; and social anxiety.

Teal patches show parts of the UK with above-average risks of loneliness.
Darker colours represent higher risk (i.e. higher rates of prescriptions for loneliness-related conditions).

Loneliness

Above-average risk

Highest risk

